PUBLICATION OF THE YALKIN GAZETTE SUSPENDED

Publication of the Yalkin Gazette, the Uighur-language newspaper of Tientsin, was suspended as of 1800, 26 February.

The editorials, written by Kurban Kuday, the editor-in-chief and director of the newspaper, had always criticized the Soviet Union, Kurban's present Sinkiang regime, and tried to incite unrest among racial groups in Sinkiang.

The Sinkiang Provincial Government, in executing this order, announced that the editorial policy of the Yalkin was opposed to the governmental policy of peace, unity, democracy, freedom, and racial equality at home; and friendly attitude toward neighboring countries.
